

Heritage in Unusual Places

Annapolis Royal June 8-10, 2012

Friday, June 8

Heritage Dessert Special – Leo’s Cafe

6:30pm Photowalk *

A great event for photographers of all ages. Beginning at the Historic Gardens, then proceeding through historic Annapolis Royal, to end at the Pub!

Saturday, June 9

8:00am-1:00pm Annapolis Royal Farmers and Traders Market

9:00am-5:00pm Guided Tours – O’Dell House Museum

9:00am-5:30pm Fort Anne National Historic Site

9:00am-5:30pm Port Royal National Historic Site

9:00am – 5:00pm Spotlight on our Acadian House – Historic Gardens *

Get a glimpse of 17th century Acadian life during a visit to the Historic Gardens. Visit the recently thatched Acadian House, learn about Acadian construction techniques, explore the dykes. For the younger folk, a special Scavenger Hunt to do while they explore the Gardens with the family!

9:30am -4:00pm Get a Handle On it! - Sinclair Inn Museum

Demonstrations of traditional techniques of making handles for hammers, axes, etc.

9:30am – 10:30am KidzAct Dance Group – Champlain Elementary School

10:00am-11:00am Candle Dipping for Children - O’Dell House Museum

Learn how to make your own candles.

10:30 – 1:00pm Family Fun Day – Champlain Elementary School, Granville Ferry

A number of activities including Nil the Magician, Face Painting, Children’s Games, Ticket Auction, BBQ in the Courtyard, Balloon Animals and more!

Heritage Dessert Special – Leo’s Cafe

1:00pm – 3:00pm Rug Hooking Demonstration – O’Dell House Museum
An informative demonstration of traditional rug hooking techniques.

2:00pm – 5:00pm Champlain Garden Club Community Flower Show - Annapolis Royal Legion
Annapolis Royal’s much anticipated annual flower show celebrates its 60th anniversary.

2:00pm – 4:00pm Champlain Garden Club Dessert Tea - Annapolis Royal Legion
Members of the Champlain Garden Club will be serving a delicious tea featuring a wide variety of delights.

3:00pm Community Flower Show Awards Presentation - Annapolis Royal Legion

5:00pm – 8:00pm Pre Prom photos – Historic Gardens
A traditional feature of the Annapolis West Education Centre Spring Prom, students and their families come to the Historic Gardens for the pre-Prom photos!

Spring Culinary Experience – Hillsdale House Inn - reservations@hillsdalehouseinn.ca **
Dinner by Chef Paula Buxton of Leo’s Cafe featuring Sledding Hill lavender.

8:00pm Amelia Curran with Alys Howe – King’s Theatre *

Sunday, June 10

9:00am-5:00pm –Spotlight on our Acadian Heritage – Historic Gardens*
Get a glimpse of 17th century Acadian life during a visit to the Historic Gardens. Visit the recently thatched Acadian House, learn about Acadian construction techniques, explore the dykes. For the younger folk, a special Scavenger Hunt to do while they explore the Gardens with the family!

9:00am-5:00pm Guided Tours – O’Dell House Museum

9:00am-5:30pm Fort Anne National Historic Site

9:00am-5:30pm Port Royal National Historic Site

2:00pm–4:00pm Open House – North Hills Museum *

2:00pm Celebrating a Newly Thatched Roof – Historic Gardens *
Historic Gardens visitors are invited to join in a celebration at the Historic Gardens’ Acadian House, which has recently been thatched by a group of volunteers. Cake and refreshments.

3:00pm – 4:30pm Puppet Making for children at O’Dell House Museum
Learn to make different styles of puppets and create your own performance.

8:00pm The Magic Flute – Maritime Concert Opera – King’s Theatre*
When a prince wanders into a strange land, he is asked by the grief-stricken queen to rescue her daughter, Pamina, who has been imprisoned by a tyrant, Sarastro. To aid him in his search, she gives the prince a magic flute and sends along the comical bird man, Papageno. Throughout the fantastical journey there are serpents to slay, animals to tame, and trials by fire and water.

9:30pm Candlelight Graveyard Tour – Meet at Fort Anne National Historic Site *
Now in their 18th season, learn about the history of Annapolis Royal through the stories of those buried in the Garrison Burial Grounds

* Site admission fees apply

 Reservation Required